

Fab-fiver makes first special purchase after becoming famous

Photo by Sally Cullum / Park Cities News

Carson Kressley, of the television show "Queer Eye for the Straight Guy," was especially delighted with an Eiseman watch.

While shooting a segment of Queer Eye for a Straight Guy pop culture phenom at NorthPark in mid-September, a decked out fab fiver Carson Kressley put his money where he mouth is and stopped by Eiseman Jewels after being told it was The Best jewelry store in town by handler and second generation Eiseman fan "Silver." Carson promptly fell in love with the limited edition anniversary Cartier Santos watch - a Texas-sized watch so Carson can keep juggling his time. Carson shared with Richard Eiseman that this is his first special purchase after becoming famous - well, other than his tony New York apartment and a horse!